Dear Parties:

During the virtual public hearing that began on Tuesday, March 23rd, everyone on the public witness list received a telephone call at least once from a member of the Commission staff. Afterwards, after midnight and during the early morning hours of March 24th, a public witness emailed the Commission staff as to why she did not receive more than one call. When the Commission offices opened Wednesday morning, Commission staff responded to this public witness' inquiry and determined that the public witness still wanted to testify.

The attached public witness list includes persons who did not get the opportunity to speak after being telephone contacted at least once by the Commission staff, but who still want to testify. All of these public witnesses on the attached list did pre-register to speak at the virtual Public Hearing on Tuesday, March 23rd.

These persons will be allowed to testify at the beginning of the hearing on Thursday, March 25th starting at 9:00 a.m.

Parties of record in the case will be allowed to respond to testimony of these public witnesses during the hearing on March 25th.
